RE: FOIA Request for Copies of Documents

To whom it may concern:

Please accept my request for the following documents from the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission(referred to in requests as “SEC”). Please forward hard copies of the below documents to my office : The Deaton Law Firm, attn: John Deaton, 450 N Broadway, East Providence, RI, 02914.

- A copy of the letter from Joseph Grundfest to former SEC chairman Jay Clayton authored in December of 2020.
- Any letters, emails, and/or correspondence from Joseph Grundfest to Former SEC chairman Jay Clayton or other Personnel of the SEC regarding the filing of SEC v. Ripple Labs (Southern District of New York Civil Action File Number 1:20-CV-10832) warning Jay Clayton and the SEC that the mere filing of the complaint would cause unprecedented billions of losses to innocent investors
- Any letters from former SEC chairman Jay Clayton or other authorized SEC Personnel to acting director Brian Brooks of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency or other Office of the Comptroller of the Currency personnel regarding the authorization allowing US banks to custody cryptocurrencies and/or digital assets

Sincerely,

John E. Deaton
