Re: In the Matter of Ripple Labs, Inc. (NY-9875), SEC v. Ripple Labs, Inc., et al., No. 20 Civ. 10832 (S.D.N.Y.) (AT) OIA File No. 2021-00506-010

Dear [REDACTED]:

The staff of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") respectfully requests the assistance of the Cayman Islands Monetary Authority ("CIMA") pursuant to the May 2002 IOSCO Multilateral Memorandum of Understanding ("MMOU"), to which both the SEC and CIMA are signatories. This request is submitted in connection with the above-captioned investigation and civil action concerning possible violations of the United States federal securities laws.

As described more fully below, SEC staff seeks CIMA's assistance in obtaining business records and communications from Binance Holdings, Inc. ("Binance"), a digital asset exchange platform and company incorporated in the Cayman Islands. [REDACTED]

I. DESCRIPTION OF THE MATTER

On December 22, 2020, the SEC filed a civil injunctive action in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, alleging that Ripple and its current and former CEOs (Brad Garlinghouse (“Garlinghouse”) and Christian Larsen (“Larsen”)) violated Section 5 of the Securities Exchange of 1933 (“Securities Act”), 15 U.S.C. s 77e (“Section 5”). The SEC alleges, among other things, that the Defendants violated Section 5 by offering and selling digital asset securities known as “XRP” without a registration statement being filed or in effect as to such offers and sales (the “Civil Action”).

4. All documents and communications concerning sales of XRP by Ripple, Garlinghouse, and/or Larsen.
5. All documents and communications concerning any agreement or potential agreement between Binance and Ripple regarding XRP.
6. All documents and communications concerning any consideration, including but not limited to XRP or cash, received by Binance in connection with any agreement identified in paragraph 2.
7. All documents sufficient to identify all amounts provided to Binance under any agreement between Binance and Ripple, including the amount paid (in USD or XRP), the disbursement date, and the identity of the ultimate beneficiary.

B. Document Certifications

SEC staff also requests assistance in having Binance authenticate the documents produced in response to this request (the “Requested Documents”). SEC staff seeks the ability to introduce the Requested Documents as evidence in a U.S. court proceeding. In order for SEC staff to be positioned to introduce the Requested Documents as evidence in court, we need to obtain a sworn certificate of authenticity of business records (“Certificate”) that the documents were made and kept in the ordinary course of business. The Certificate should include a specific description of the documents being produced and be signed by individuals who have knowledge of the procedures for maintaining records. Enclosed please find a sample Certificate to be executed by records custodians or other qualified persons associated with Binance.

We ask that you send any records produced in electronic format to the following email addresses: Foreign.Requests@sec.gov; cc: OIA_DocumentProductions@sec.gov; and ██████████. If the electronic records are more than 12 MB, please contact us for additional instructions. Please send any records produced in hard copy to: 100 F Street NE, Washington, DC 20549-1004.

In addition, please do not identify the SEC as the requesting party when seeking documents and information from Binance.

V. CONFIDENTIALITY

This letter is confidential and privileged under U.S. law. Pursuant to Securities Exchange Act Subsection 24(f)(1), the SEC does not waive any privileges (including, but not limited to, work product, deliberative process, and law enforcement privileges) in transferring the information to, or permitting the information to be used by, CIMA. We ask that this letter and its contents not be communicated to any third party without the authorization of SEC staff. We also ask that you notify us of any legally enforceable demand for this letter and that you assert any appropriate legal exemptions or privileges with respect to this letter as may be appropriate. If CIMA is required to notify any third party about this request, we would respectfully ask that you discuss such notice requirement with us before communicating with the third party.

So that the SEC may seek to protect your response, please notify us on an ongoing basis if communications and information that you share with us in connection with this matter contain or may contain: (1) privileged information (and, if so, identify privileges that apply) and/or (2) records, which if publicly disclosed, would violate the laws applicable to your agency. See Securities Exchange Act, Subsections 24(f)(2) and 24(d).

SEC staff appreciates your cooperation and attention to this matter. If you have any questions, please contact me or Owen Granke by email at [REDACTED] or by telephone at (202) 551-[REDACTED].
